

Facilities for Cultural Activities

Trabzon University Mahmut Gologlu Cultural Center consist of a conference hall with a stage can be used for different purposes. It is equipped with the latest technology and has 500 seats capacity. In this center, many events are organized by different departments throughout the year. The center also comprises exhibition hall.

In addition, the university has two drama halls for students to perform visual art activities. Plus a sound recording studio belong to the state conservatory is available.

Facilities for Academic Studies

At TU, physics, chemistry, biology and computer laboratories are available for teaching staff as well as students for academic purposes and research. Besides, Research Center for Psychological Counselling and Guidance is currently established and it offers psychological counselling services for all staff and students at the university.