

Trabzon University offering its students all possible opportunities regarding social, cultural and sports facilities. The social and cultural facilities include Mahmut Gologlu Cultural Center where all sorts of scientific and cultural meetings can be organized.

At the university campus students can use the Main Sports Hall at the Faculty of Sports Sciences where students can use the hall for in-door activities such as playing volleyball, basketball, table-tennis, squash, badminton and can use fitness center at certain times. In addition, there are open mini football fields, tennis courts, open basketball and volleyball fields which are available to students and the university staff.

The students at Trabzon University can form groups to perform various activities such as folk dancing, acting, music, and arranging movie nights.